I am afraid the Sangha wants to deposit ~~keep~~ all its money at the governable rate of interest under the pretence that it will be for making provision for the Ed. and amelioration (?) of the Vokkaligas. I think that before sanctioning the receipt of such deposits, Govt. must have more information regarding the amount of deposit, the ^{exact} purpose for which the interest is to be utilised and the amount of expenditure necessary for the furtherance of such purpose.

11. The Query referred to by the Asst Secy ~~in his~~ on the previous page is that mentioned in his note of 30.5.1912 on G.R. No. 556 of 1911-12 (also a current file) and is noted below:—

"Write to the Comptroller enquiring if the max^m limit has been relaxed in any case on the ground that the ^{amount} ~~excess~~ is of a charitable purpose &c."

No reply has yet been received from the Comptroller on the subject the requisition therefor having ^{been} issued on the 5th instt.

12. It is also informally ascertained from the Comptroller's Office that deposits on acc^t of endowments for charitable ~~and~~ institutions are credited ~~and accounted for separately~~ to a separate head of account and are not treated as Savings Bank's Deposits and such deposits are not transacted on the same lines as Savings Bank's Deposits.

deposits altogether one of the conditions of the deposit is that the depositor should not at any time require the return of any portion of the amount deposited.
I suspect that this point has been lost sight of by the applicant, as in the application, he says that the ~~account~~ ^{account} will be operated on for current exp^{ts}. Under the rules he can never claim the principal whether for current exp^{ts} or for extraordinary exp^{ts}. This may perhaps be brought before further action is taken.

14. The object as put before in the application appears to be of a benevolent & educational character & Govt may perhaps allow him to make a deposit as suggested.

15. He further asks that the deposit may be of Rs 3,000 to 1,00,000 that he may be allowed to pay it piecemeal in ~~instalments~~ amounts not less than 2,000. But to be the beneficiary of the application, a sufficiently large amount say 10 or 20 thousand must be asked to be deposited in the Trust.

With reference to your letter No. ⁷¹⁴⁷⁴³_{5.7.549-11-2} dated 8th May 1912, I have the honor to state as follows in answer to the several points referred to in the above letter.

1. We will commence with depositing the minimum amount allowed under the Rules in force i.e Rs 3000/- and continue to add to this deposit in thousands till the maximum limit of one lakh reached.

2. The interest according to the favourable rates asked for accruing from these deposits will be utilized solely towards the maintenance and also to the grant of scholarships to deserving Vokkaligar students who may be in need of the same, so as to enable them to continue their studies. In short, the money will be devoted only to educational purposes.

3. These funds will form the permanent be drawn upon. The Sangha will maintain a separate floating account either in the Bank of Madras or in the Mysore Government Savings Bank & this money will be available for current expenses.

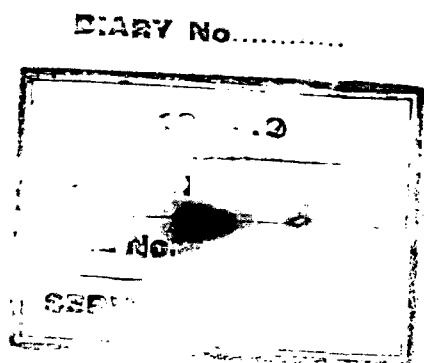

I trust that the above will make it clear as to the charitable nature of the deposits and that you will kindly sanction the same being endowed at the favourable rates of interest at an early date.
